Mr. George Kenny

"Walk Down Main Street"

On a cool October night during half time on the Crespi Football Field, Mr. George Kenny was honored for 27 years of dedication to Crespi Football. Coach Kenny had only missed 2 games in those 27 years. He loved the game and the school, and he was an inspiration to those athletes he coached.

Several players recalled his words of encouragement, when, after a not too promising practice early in the season, he told them that of all the teams he'd seen at Crespi, they had the ability to win the championship. As it turned out, he was right. They did win and win big. The Big 5 Championship Game at Anaheim Stadium was theirs as they destroyed St. John Bosco with a 49 to 14 victory. It was a night of pride and spirit that will never be forgotten, just as the pride and dedication of Coach Kenny will also never be forgotten. Coach Kenny's memory will live on at Crespi, and hopefully, so will the spirit and dedication he instilled in so many Crespi athletes.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

"We are all one with the Spirit . . ."

"God is light, and in him is no darkness at all."

Kairos '86-87

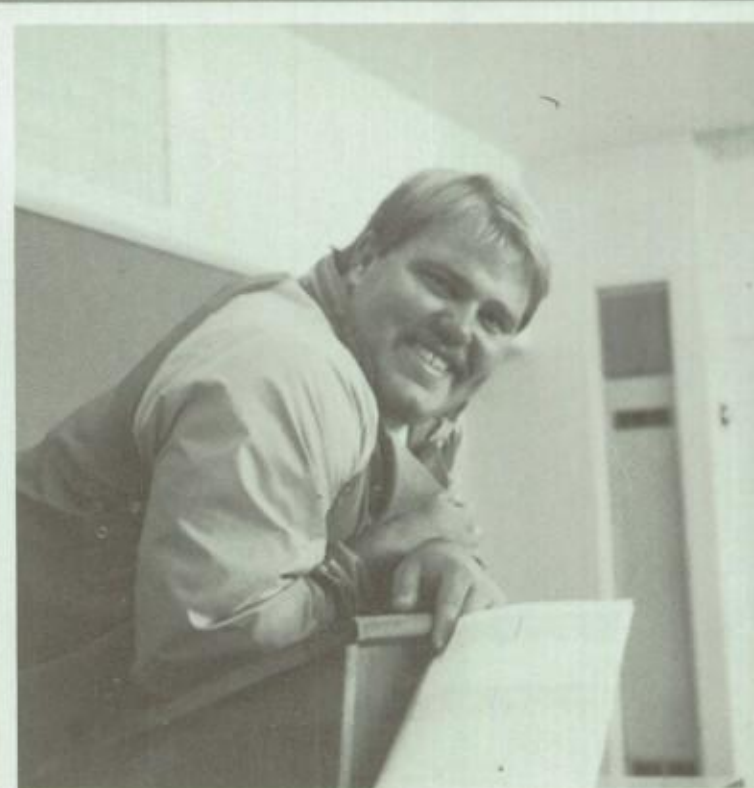

"Happiness is World of Sunshine!!"

"My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering,
when you see only one set of footprints,
it was then that I carried you."

— Author Unknown

Academics

"Take out a pen and paper, we're going to have a short quiz (!)"

$$\frac{-b \pm \sqrt{b^2 - 4ac}}{2a}$$

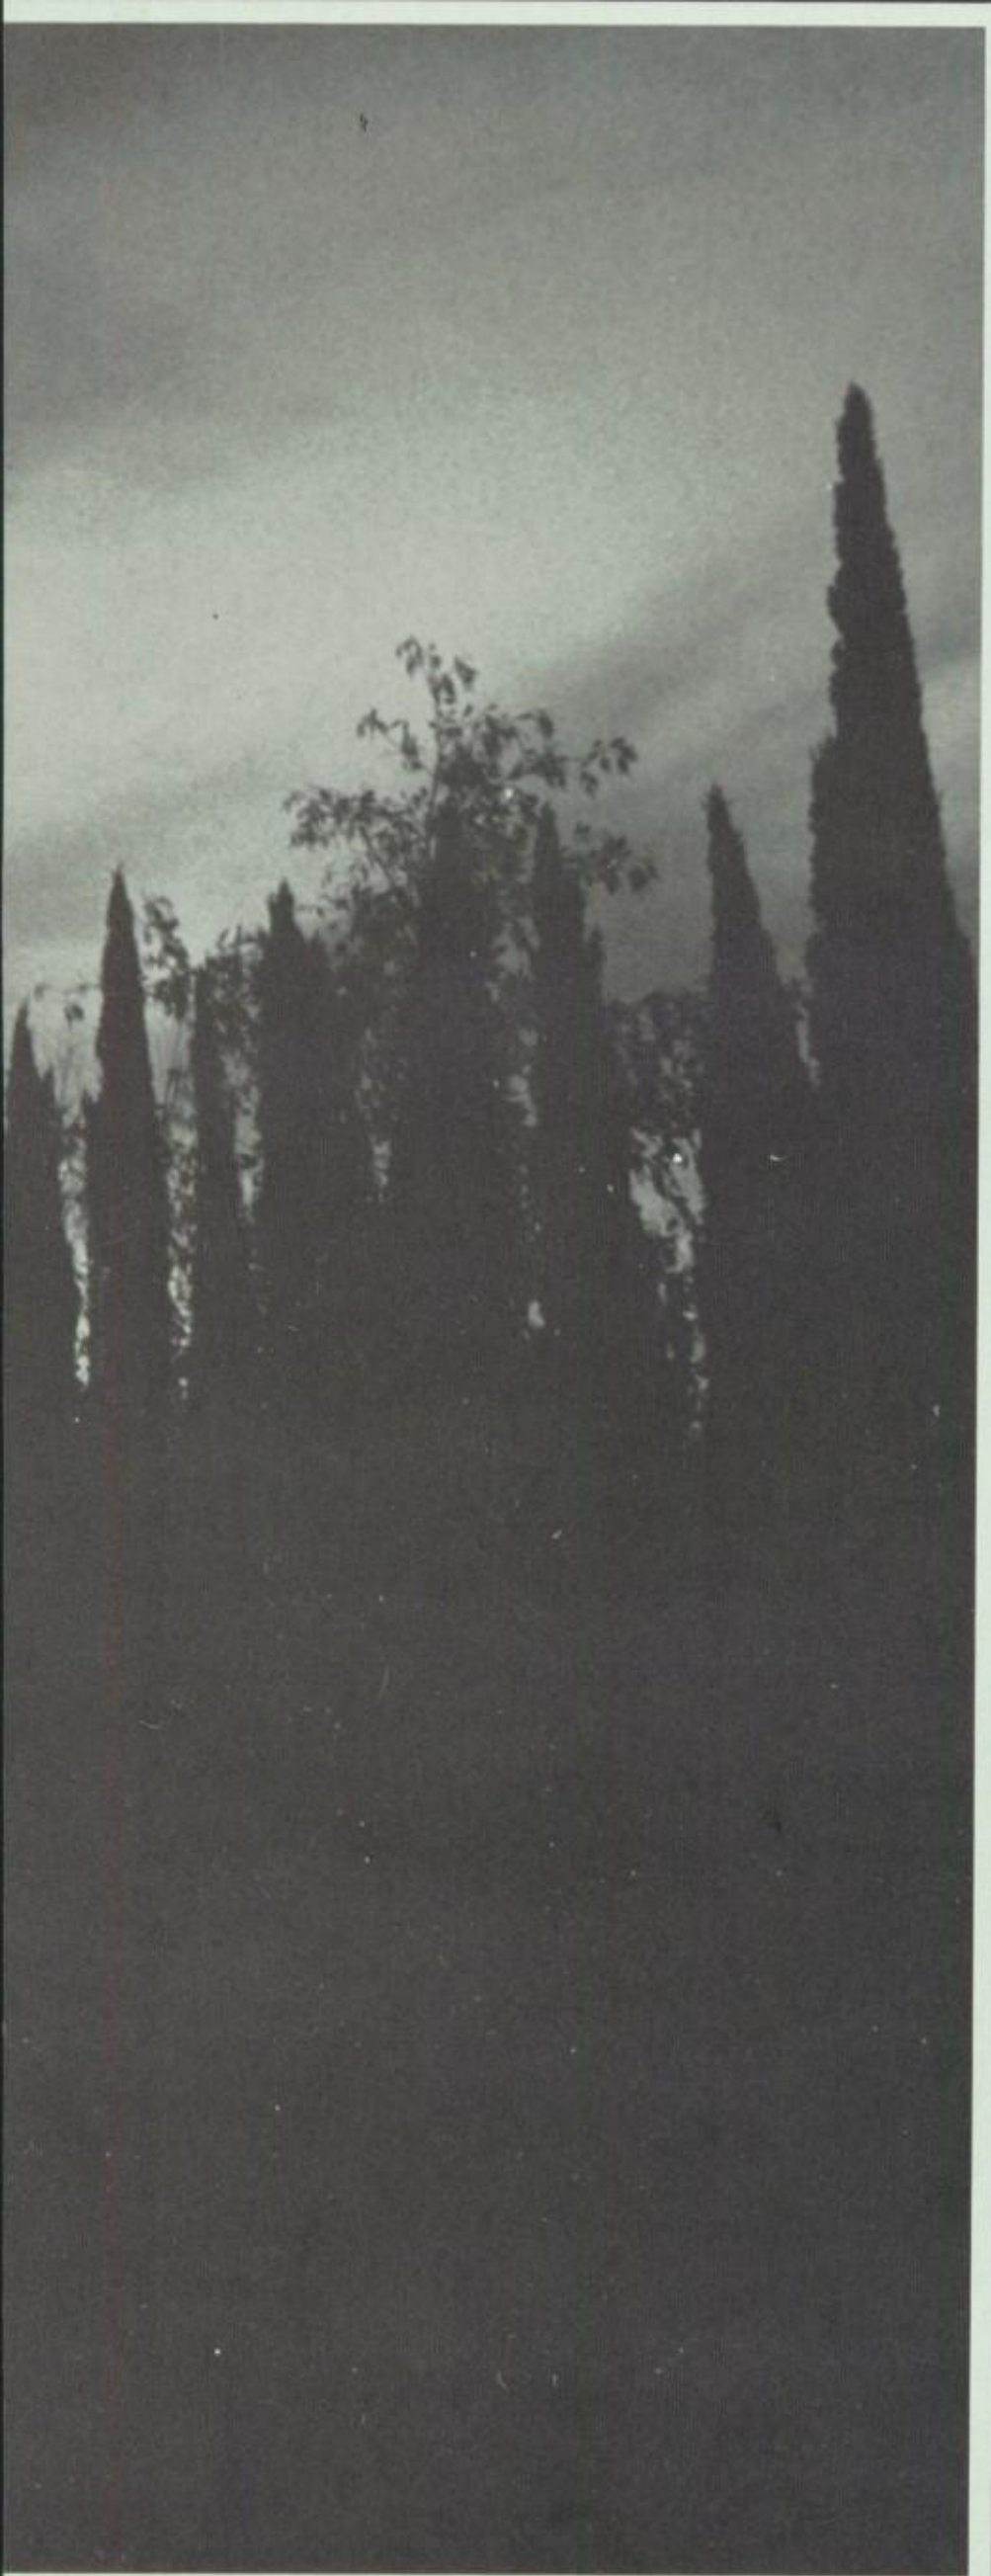

"Make the statement
and back it up . . ."

The Waking

I wake to sleep, and take my waking slow.
I feel my fate in what I cannot fear.
I learn by going where I have to go.

We think by feeling. What is there to know?
I hear my being dance from ear to ear.
I wake to sleep, and take my waking slow.

Of those so close beside me, which are you?
God bless the Ground! I shall walk softly there,
And learn by going where I have to go . . .

A Celebration

A week of intense Crespi pride concluded with the 1986 Homecoming Game against St. John Bosco. Despite our defeat, the some 7000 spectators were treated to a spectacular half-time show. This included a parade of convertible Mustangs carrying the 1985 queen, and the 1986 court, 5000 balloons, 4 fire-engines with cheerleaders on board. A dazzling fireworks display ended the festivities.

The ceremonial crown was passed on to the new 1986 Homecoming Queen; Julie Christenson.

Behind the Scenes

Many students lent their support in the 1986 Homecoming festivities. John Cardos built the basic structure of the Volcano and the art class put on the finishing touches of paper mache and paint. The Booster Club and Caper were responsible for the funds needed to purchase the colorful balloons used during the Homecoming half time show. The overall effect of the set-up captured the mood and atmosphere of the tropical islands of Hawaii.

Crespi's Homecoming Dance, "A Trip to the Islands," turned out to be a huge success thanks to the brilliance of Coordinator, Mr. Ron Thomas, and the entire Student Council. The Gym was decorated with the fuselage of a plane for an entrance a 12 foot tall volcano, and flower leis for all the girls, perhaps the best decorations ever. The ambiance was further highlighted by balloons, and different kinds of tropical foods. The students helped in the success by dressing up in Hawaiian outfits. The Homecoming Court, led by the 1986 Queen, Julie Christenson, and some 300 people danced the last slow dance topping off a wonderful evening enjoyed by all.

Trading Places! The Crespi

Crespi had it's first trade-off with La Reina High School, an all girls' school in Thousand Oaks. The exchange, initiated by La Reina's Student Council, traded 30 students from each school for 1 day of classes. Each student involved in the exchange was assigned a host or hostess, to show him or her around the school, and a typical day of classes. The exchange tried to promote a relationship between Crespi and La Reina.

"In the Air Tonight"

Crespi's 1987 Junior-Senior Prom was held at the new Sheraton Grand Hotel located in the downtown area of Los Angeles. Mr. Ron Thomas with the help of Mike Heffernan, Jack Manning, Tom Carroll, Rich D'Alessio, and Mike Conway coordinated the event and made it a success.

A Night That Never Seems to End

This year's prom was a sell-out for the seniors. Only 4 juniors attended due to the large number of seniors who bought bids. Prom goers this year received souvenir invitations, garters and were able to take home the flowers that decorated the tables. The disc-jockey providing the music was "Time Warp."

The spring production this year was "Guys and Dolls" directed by Mrs. Keane and Mrs. Cathcart. Although quickly put together, with only 4 weeks for rehearsal, the play was very successful and popular.

The principal players were Tom Crawford, Tony Farenesh, Bunkie Rayner, Dan Peters, John Cole, Bob Sandler, Craig Shofstall and Steve Puryear.

Senior Awards Night

The Senior Speaker for Senior Awards Night this year was Mr. Joel Wilker. The seniors voted for the teacher they wanted to hear speak and Mr. Wilker was the winner. In his talk, Mr. Wilker reassured the graduating class the Crespi, the Teachers and the Staff would always be there for them.

Graduation Day

Graduation was held at 5:00 p.m. on May 29 at Our Lady of Grace Church. Three valedictorians gave similar speeches on the things they will remember about their 4 years at Crespi. The speakers were Mike Erlinger, Tony Farenesh, and Ron Mathiasen. All the graduates seemed equally happy to leave Crespi as caps were tossed in the air at the end of the ceremony. A crowd of well wishers, families, and friends, gathered in the courtyard afterward and then it was on to the parties and celebrations.

Bringing It All Together

The 1987 Los Encinos Yearbook staff expressed the great diversity at Crespi High School. Although the staff didn't agree on everything, it still managed to meet all the deadlines to produce a successful book. The editorial staff included Patrick Frantz, Troy Thomas, Miles Kurosky, John Posta, Jeff Nourse, Chris Brock, Brian Sottile, Morgan Slade, and Tony Clemente. The photographers included Eric Murrillo, Charles Sulahian, Will Prout, and Carl LoBue.

The one I love
speaks sweetly, and nurtures within me all that is good and whole and complete.

The one I love
confronts me,
with disarming honesty
that strips me bare to disclose my angry heart.

The one I love
listens,
when no response is appropriate or called for — when all that I require is someone to meet my words with open eyes and ears.

The one I love
is there
when I need or want or require and is there when I shun all of these,
and my heart hides deep within me.

Because he is the one I love.
